

Western New York Living and Learning Communities Consortium (WNYLLCC)
Mission and Core Values Statement
Proposed
7/18/2011

Mission

To serve the people involved Living and Learning Communities through faculty, staff, and student engagement, shared experiences, shared resources, advocacy, and on-going professional development, collaborative programming.

Core Values and Method to achieve outlined goals

Faculty Engagement

- Provide faculty with networking opportunities
- Faculty assessment/ survey
- Engage faculty through participation in LLC

Shared Experiences

- Professional Development, host an annual conference
- Professional development, host breakfast meetings
- Establish list serve for WNYLLCC to share best practices and information
- Maintain Clearinghouse of information (literature & programming)
- Identify and establish opportunities for members to enhance grant writing skills

Shared Resources

- Professional Development, host an annual conference
- Cost share for professional development & speakers
- Cost share for LLCC Programming (i.e.: admission fee/ transportation fee for various activities).
- Collaborate to write competitive grants

Advocacy

- Serve as main advocacy organization for LLCs to the Senior Academic Affairs Committee
- Serve as advocates for the goals and purposes of the LLCC
- Advocate for recognition of Faculty service
- Share information and collaborate for publishing opportunities
- Collect pre/post LLC data at respective institutions